CORCOVADO & SUGAR LOAF WITH LUNCH

This is a combination package including the Corcovado and Sugar Loaf Tours, including lunch. After pick-up, tour will take the Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas (lagoon) and reach the Rebouças tunnel, a 2.6 km long complex. This tunnel links the southern and northern parts of the city cut in half by the Tijuca ridge that makes Rio the only city in the world to have a National Park 5 minutes from downtown. Reaching the Cosme Velho district, tour members will take a cogwheel train of Swiss manufacture that climbs the mountain from its base at 15 mts. to almost its summit at 670 mts. The top is reached by climbing a flight of steps reaching the base of Christ the Redeemer statue. This statue covered with a mosaic of soapstone is one of Rio's finest Art Nouveau monuments. The view, from this vantage point, with the surrounding Tijuca National Forest spread below and a circle of mountains closing the horizon at the very back of the Guanabara Bay. Tour will continue taking another way to return the hotel. Guide will take around 40 minutes to show the city and the statue to passengers. After this return to the train, and descend to Cosme Velho to board the bus to visit São Conrado and Pepino Beach, where the hang gliders soar. Lunch will be served in a local Rio de Janeiro restaurant. In the afternoon, tour will continue visiting downtown Rio, a city that has been the capital of Colonial Brazil, the capital of the Portugal and Brazil Empire and now a Republic. Most of the attractions are highlights of these periods and are part of the Brazilian National Heritage. The Sugar Loaf is known as Rio's postcard and is a must visit. Since the best time of the day to go up the cable car is later in the day tour will close at the Sugar Loaf.

Sugar Loaf is reached on a two-stage cable car ride. This cable car in operation is of Italian manufacture and takes 80 persons per trip on a 2-minute ride. The first stage, Morro da Urca - barely 170 mts. high, has a restaurant, amphitheatre, a heliport for scenic rides and a privileged view of the Yacht Club and Botafogo Bay. The second stage takes one up to the Sugar Loaf - named because of the loaves of sugar that were commonly used by the Portuguese at the time of the discovery of the city. The all-encompassing view of this 270-meter high lookout is unrivalled. This is the only site where one will have a full view of Copacabana beach.

BRAZILIAN SIDE OF THE FALLS

Located on the west end of the Paraná River, the Iguazú Park is a huge tropical rainforest which has been declared a World Heritage Site. It is one of the largest forest reserves in South America. Countless flora and fauna species are found here. We will take an elevator down to the base of the waterfalls and stop right above the river level. From a 1,000-meter footbridge, we will be able to admire the majestic Iguazú Falls or go up an elevator to the Salto Floreano viewpoint.

Overnight in Iguassu

DAY 14: Iguassu / Sao Paulo

Breakfast at the hotel

ARGENTINEAN SIDE OF THE FALLS

Iguazú National Park—a total of 55,500 hectares—bears the name of the river serving as northern border, which means ‘great waters’ in the Guaraní language. Surrounded by a lush subtropical rainforest, we will find the majestic Iguazú Waterfalls. Its water volume and more than 275 falls, places it among the most important and spectacular waterfalls in the world. On different footbridges we will visit the heart of the waterfalls, appreciating them from different angles. We will visit the lower circuit and feel part of nature, refreshing ourselves with waterfall drizzle. On the upper circuit we will stop at different viewpoints, and then reach the balcony at Garganta del Diablo (Devil’s Throat). No doubt, this is the most amazing of all the falls, water falls down from 80 meters.
