

Western Treasures

Explore California, Arizona, and Nevada on this grand Western Treasures tour. Start in San Francisco and travel south to Monterey, with sightseeing and visits to historic Fisherman's Wharf and Cannery Row. Enjoy 17-Mile Drive en route to picturesque Carmel; then continue to Solvang, where Denmark has been recreated with picturesque buildings and windmills; Santa Barbara; and Los Angeles, with a sightseeing tour that includes a drive through Hollywood and a visit to Grauman's Chinese Theatre. Head inland and visit Palm Springs before crossing into Arizona and staying in Scottsdale. From Scottsdale, travel to Grand Canyon National Park, where you'll marvel at the stunning scenery. Spend three nights in exciting Las Vegas, where you'll have plenty of time to visit the casinos, see a dazzling show, shop at the fashionable shops, or join an optional excursion.

From Las Vegas, travel back into California and stay in Mammoth (depending on the time of year), a popular alpine resort area surrounded by beauty and majesty—and within easy reach of Yosemite National Park. Explore Yosemite National Park, a wonderland of gorgeous waterfalls, lush forests, giant granite domes, and scenic lakes. Spend some time in Sacramento, California's capital, before returning to San Francisco, where you'll enjoy sightseeing of the major attractions and a visit to Alcatraz Prison, the infamous federal penitentiary that was off limits to the public for years.

14 Nights/15 Days

San Diego - Los Angeles - Santa Barbara - Solvang - San Luis Obispo - Carmel -
Monterey - San Francisco - Wine Country - Eureka - Redwood National Park - Coos Bay - Florence - New Port - Portland - Seattle.

Day 1: San Diego

Welcome to San Diego, California's second-largest city. Time at leisure to relax or to do some independent exploring. Your Tour Director is on hand this evening to answer any questions.

Day 2: San Diego

Enjoy blue skies on 70 miles of beaches with a Mediterranean climate. This morning features a sightseeing tour, including downtown, the Gaslamp Quarter, Balboa Park, Coronado Island, and Old Town San Diego.

This afternoon, experience San Diego at your leisure. Take in the Maritime Museum or the celebrated San Diego Zoo. (CB)

Day 3: San Diego-Los Angeles

Today, continue on your coastal journey to Los Angeles, the "City of Angels" and home to Universal Studios® as well as your favourite music and film celebrities. Tour Los Angeles and visit the TCL Chinese Theatre, where nearly 200 movie stars have left their handprints and footprints, and see the popular Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Day 4: Los Angeles

The day is free for your own exploration. Visit Hollywood and the Hollywood History Museum, located in the old Max Factor Building. Stroll on Olvera Street, the heart of the original Spanish Mission, or visit the Getty Centre with its wonderful art collection.

This evening, your Tour Director will have plenty of suggestions for dining and shopping.

Day 5: Los Angeles-Santa Barbara-Solvang-San Luis Obispo

This morning, leave the "Motion Picture Capital of the World" behind as you follow the shoreline from Santa Monica to Santa Barbara. The Spanish influence is apparent in Santa Barbara with its quaint whitewashed and tile-roofed buildings. Visit the impressive 200-year-old MISSION with its world-famous twin bell towers.

Afterward, enjoy a stroll along the wharf and lunch on your own. Up next Solvang, where Denmark has been recreated with picturesque buildings and windmills. Free time to browse through the charming shops featuring Danish imports and rich pastries.

Day 6: San Luis Obispo–San Simeon–Carmel–17-Mile Drive–Monterey

This morning we'll travel along the scenic Big Sur Coast Highway and journey to San Simeon to visit HEARST CASTLE, the opulent mansion of wealthy newspaper tycoon William Randolph Hearst. See the splendid antiques, art treasures, and exotic possessions. Next, visit the resort town of Carmel, a popular haven for writers, artists, and celebrities.

Another high point on today's journey is the beautiful 17-MILE DRIVE, with views of famous Pebble Beach Golf Course and the tenacious Lone Cypress. Next, travel to Monterey, made famous by John Steinbeck's Cannery Row. (CB)

Day 7: Monterey–San Francisco

This morning, leave the Monterey coast behind and journey up the peninsula to San Francisco, the "City by the Bay." Upon arrival, a sightseeing tour includes the breath taking Golden Gate Bridge and bustling Fisherman's Wharf. Afterward, take a boat trip to ALCATRAZ PRISON and learn the history of this notorious former prison. (CB)

NOTE

The National Park Service requires we disclose that the value of the Alcatraz Prison visit is US$30.

Day 8: San Francisco

The day is free for independent exploration. Perhaps return to Fisherman's Wharf to enjoy its stores, markets, and excellent waterside eateries; stroll along Grant Street; or maybe take a cable car ride. Tonight, join our optional evening out with dinner at Fisherman's Wharf followed by an illumination tour of San Francisco.

Day 9: San Francisco–Wine Country–Eureka

Leave San Francisco and cross over the magnificent Golden Gate Bridge. Head north into the wine-growing valley of Sonoma. Enjoy a guided tour and WINE TASTING at one of the well-known wineries.

Afterward, travel the AVENUE OF THE GIANTS. This world-famous scenic drive is a 31-mile portion of Highway 101 with 51,222 acres of redwood groves.

Day 10: Eureka–Redwood National Park–Bandon-by-the-Sea–Coos Bay

Travel the coastal highway through REDWOOD NATIONAL PARK with its majestic sequoias; then drive to the seacoast town of Bandon-by-the-Sea. This sightseeing tour will show you its beauty and charm, and includes a photo stop at the Bandon Lighthouse. Overnight in the town of Coos Bay. (CB)

Day 11: Coos Bay–Florence–Newport

Today is all about scenic beauty at a leisurely pace. First is the quaint town of Florence, one of Oregon’s most beautiful and charming cities along the coast. Time on your own to explore this historic Old Town with its shops, boutiques, and coffee houses.

From Florence, continue north through the SIUSLAW NATIONAL FOREST past popular beach resorts to one of Oregon’s favourite vacation spots—Newport on pretty Yaquina Bay. Late this afternoon, visit the OREGON COAST AQUARIUM.

Day 12: Newport–Tillamook–Portland

For a taste of the dramatic Oregon coastline we follow the Three Capes Scenic Route to Tillamook. Watch for the signs that tell you the brief story of the ghost community, now gone, that existed there 35 to 55 years ago. Enjoy a break in Tillamook, best known for its famous cheese and tasty saltwater taffy, before heading to Portland, Oregon’s largest city. A sightseeing tour shows why Portland is better known as the “City of Roses” with its numerous parks and beautiful flower gardens. Visit the largest rose garden in the U.S.—WASHINGTON PARK INTERNATIONAL ROSE TEST GARDEN.

Day 13: Portland–Seattle

Today, cross the majestic Columbia River and head north into Washington State to the VOLCANO VISITORS CENTER to learn of the dramatic eruption of Mount St. Helens. Then, weather permitting, see ice-clad dormant volcano Mount Rainier before reaching Seattle.

This afternoon’s sightseeing includes the Seattle Centre, site of the 1962 World Fair and the 605-foot-high Space Needle, and a stop at the colourful Pike Place Market.

Day 14: Seattle

The day is free for you to explore the “Emerald City.” Perhaps take a sightseeing tour that soaks up the Asian flavour of the International District. Explore downtown, take a ferry across Puget Sound, or just relax and soak yourself in the spectacular views of Elliott Bay and enjoy fresh seafood.

Day 15: Seattle

The trip ends this morning with guests departing on individual schedules. Transfers are provided to Seattle-Tacoma International Airport.
